ICPAS – CHICAGO SOUTH CHAPTER

IRS COLLECTIONS AND PROCEDURES

Date: Thursday, February 18, 2010

Speaker: Larry J. Wolfe, CPA
Stan Green, EA, CPA

Tax season is upon us and the dealing with the IRS is becoming more complicated. IRS Audit and Appeals, Taxpayer Rights, Trust Fund Recovery, Collection issues and Penalty Abatements are problems every practitioner needs to handle as issues arise. Furthermore, the increased scrutiny of tax return preparers and tax return preparation procedures has led to new potential enforcement under Circular 230 and other new requirements.

Join us for a frank discussion by experienced tax practitioners who deal with these issues every day. You will find Larry's handouts of tax practice forms to be a valuable resource.

Larry is an active member of the Illinois CPA Society Taxation Practice and Procedures Committee and an active practitioner. His insights to avoid pitfalls are great tips.

Stan is a former IRS employee who has recently switched to become a practitioner. His experience from the IRS point of view is most always interesting.

Everyone is welcome (Members in Public Accounting, Industry, Consulting, Non-Profits, non-members, young professionals, students, clients, guests, and staff). Please join us and support your local Chapter meetings.
